

Movie

A movie (film) is a work of art and entertainment that tells a story or conveys ideas through a sequence of moving images and sound, creating the illusion of continuous movement. Typically projected in a movie theater or at home on a screen, a movie is a way to experience stories, ideas, feelings, and atmospheres by simulating simulated experiences through visual and auditory elements.